

Name _____ Possessive Nouns

Possessive Nouns Indicate Belonging

Possessive nouns are used to show that something belongs to a person, place, thing or idea. Make a singular noun possessive by adding an apostrophe and an "s" to the end.

EXAMPLE: The ball belongs to Carl.
The lid belongs to the pot.

Carl's ball
the pot's lid

If the noun already ends in "s", just add an apostrophe to the end of the word.

EXAMPLE: The kitten belongs to the girls.
This room belongs to the executives.

the girls' kitten
the executives' room

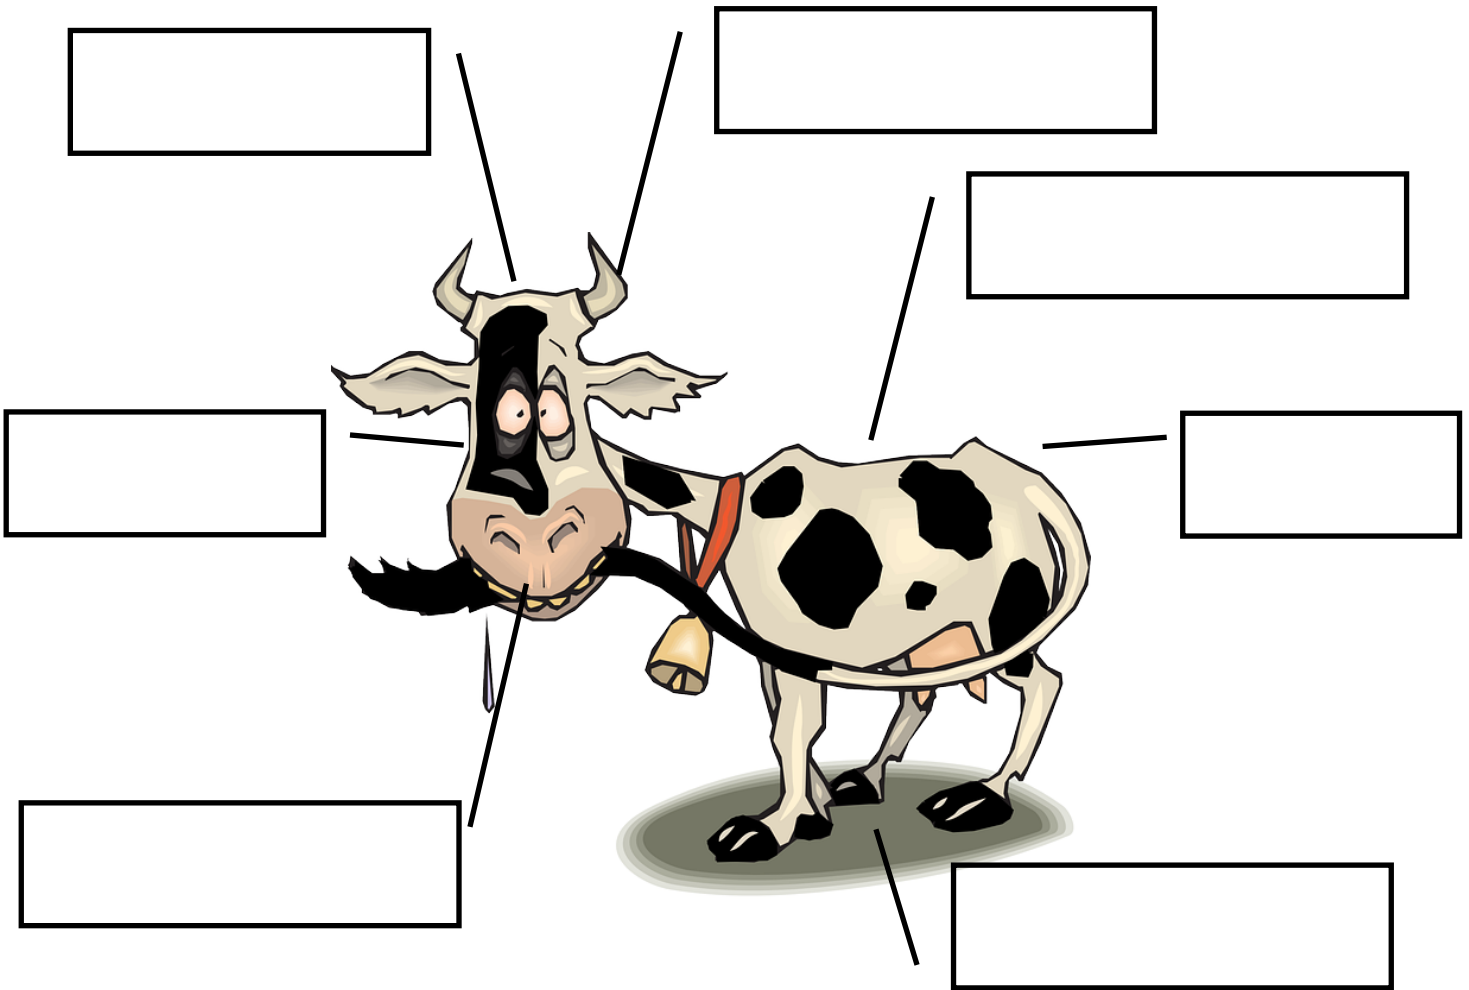

DIRECTIONS: Rewrite each sentence using a possessive noun to show each belonging.

1. The cart belongs to the horse. _____
2. The job belongs to Mike. _____
3. That moon belongs to earth. _____
4. The car belongs to Pete. _____
5. The class belongs to Ann. _____
6. The wish belongs to Kim. _____
7. This street belongs to Paul. _____
8. This necklace belongs to Tina. _____

Name _____ Adjectives

Using Adjectives in Descriptive Writing

An adjective is a word that describes a noun. Write as many words as you can think of to describe the cow below. Write one word in each box. Then write a few sentences about the cat on the lines below.

Adjectives in Sentences

An adjective modified a noun. Identify the adjective in each sentence and write it on the line. Then underline the noun it modifies.

1. Jean loves colorful flowers. _____
2. Frank bought a set of turquoise dishes. _____
3. Mike always carries some extra cash. _____
4. On a hot day, the children like to play in water. _____
5. That was really a spectacular movie. _____
6. Most wouldn't, but Helen loves the tedious work. _____
7. Please put those rambunctious dogs outside. _____
8. I gazed at the enormous stack of papers. _____
9. She ripped her black dress. _____
10. We watched the sleek lion prepare to pounce. _____
11. There is a delicately woven basket on that table. _____
12. We are sending her to an accredited school. _____
13. This is a very popular library for kids. _____
14. She always comes up with interesting projects. _____
15. That woman in the diamond bracelet is rude. _____
16. I like soft tissues when I am sick. _____
17. That was a difficult certification to attain. _____

Name _____ Verb Tense

When Did It Happen?

DIRECTIONS: Write on the line whether the underlined verb is in the present, past, or future tense.

_____ 1. John will go to college.

_____ 2. Michael gave up playing soccer.

_____ 3. Jim wants to watch a movie.

_____ 4. Lillian ignores her little brother.

_____ 5. My mother will probably say no.

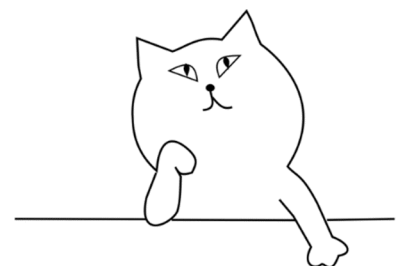

_____ 6. The dogs barked all night.

_____ 7. Our neighbor will be moving across town.

_____ 8. That kitten is very playful.

_____ 9. I wake every morning at six.

_____ 10. The plane landed safely.

the from to two dog sit apple at boy

Fill in the sentences with the best spelling word:

1. The _____ sat on a chair.
2. The _____ chewed on a bone.
3. I ate a red _____ for a snack.
4. He got a letter _____ his grandma.
5. We had to go _____ the dentist.
6. I ate _____ pork chops for supper.
7. The _____ got a bone from the _____.

Draw a picture of a dog on the chair.

Word Shapes

boy

at

apple

dog

to

bone

the red

from

sit

two

chair

Name _____ Listening Skills

1.

2.

3.

4.

Name _____ Listening Skills

How Are Your Listening Skills?

DIRECTIONS: Rate yourself for each of the listening skills below.

✓ I am great at this ○ I am okay at this X I need to work on this

1. I look people in the eye when they talk to me. _____
2. I watch people's facial expressions to better understand them. _____
3. When I listen, I really want to understand the other person's point of view. _____
4. I do not interrupt. _____
5. I wait until the other person pauses before I ask questions. _____
6. I give the other person my complete attention. _____
7. I pay attention so I can remember what was said. _____
8. I keep an open mind while listening. _____
9. What can you do to improve your listening skills?

